

UNDERGRADUATE (ALIYA)

COURSE OF STUDY

- Those who successfully complete the preparatory course are eligible to do an undergraduate course in Islamic and Arabic Studies from various colleges affiliated to the CIC.
- The faculties for the undergraduate course (Aliya) are:
  - 1) Theology
  - 2) Islamic Sharia
  - 3) Arabic Language
- The undergraduate programme is divided into eight semester (four years)
- There will be 240 working days (40 working weeks) in an academic year including four weeks of term-end examinations.
- There will be 120 working days (20 working weeks) in a semester including two weeks of term-end examination.
- There will be six working days in a week.
- There will be eight periods on a working day.
- Each period will be equivalent to 45 minutes.

PROCEDURES OF ADMISSION AND EXAMINATION

- Students are enrolled on the course in the first week of June every year.
- The basic qualification for the undergraduate course is a pass in the preparatory course run by the CIC (or equivalent).
- A student will not be given more than 15 days of leave in an academic year.
- Term-end examinations will be held towards the end of each semester and only those who pass in the exams can appear for the next semester.
- Those who fail in not more than three papers shall be given a supplementary chance in the same semester. In the event of failing in more than three papers, it is required to repeat the semester (only the papers lost) along with the next batch of students.
- The undergraduate certificate will not be issued until the students produce their Bachelor's Degree certificate from any university approved by the University Grants Commission (UGC) of the Government of India.
- In selected papers, 20% of the total marks will be by way of Continuous Evaluation processes including Assignments and Seminars.
- Criteria for awarding grades at the term-end exams:
